

Kathrine "Kathy" Jorgenson, Project Coordinator

Specialties:

Providing project management skills for multiple administrative projects and tasks.

Organizing and maintaining comprehensive electronic and manual office files company wide, including executive-level files.

Educating staff on resources and providing text for written proposals and documents based on her experience in the banking industry.

Kathrine Jorgenson successfully managed the treasury management department of a large commercial bank for more than ten years of a twenty-two year banking career. In that leadership role, she yielded tremendous revenue growth, as well as satisfied, loyal customers, and a dedicated and well-trained staff. As a professional and supportive manager for her staff, she believes strongly that providing a safe and encouraging environment allows employees to be the best they can be, in turn greatly benefiting the company. Her attention to detail and project management skills prove invaluable to all her customers. After transitioning to a consultative role in which she could still utilize her extensive banking expertise, Kathy discovered the personal satisfaction of directly helping companies achieve their objectives.
