

Methamphetamine Web Link Resources

Addiction Technology Transfer Center

<http://www.nattc.org/index.html>

Building on a rich history, the Addiction Technology Transfer Center (ATTC) Network is dedicated to identifying and advancing opportunities for improving addiction treatment. ATTC's vision is to unify science, education and services to transform the lives of individuals and families affected by alcohol and other drug addiction. The Network undertakes a broad range of initiatives that respond to emerging needs and issues in the treatment field. The Network is funded by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) to upgrade the skills of existing practitioners and other health professionals and to disseminate the latest science to the treatment community. ATTC expends resources to create a multitude of products and services that are timely and relevant to the many disciplines represented by the addiction treatment workforce.

Matrix Institute on Addictions (Education & Training Section)

<http://www.matrixinstitute.org/Education%20&%20Training.html>

The Matrix Institute on Addictions is committed to improving the lives of individuals and families affected by alcohol and other drug use through: treatment; education and training (local, national and international trainings on the Matrix Model, methamphetamine addiction, basic pharmacology, adolescent treatment, and early intervention); research and grants; National Institute on Drug Abuse - Principles of Drug Addiction Treatment; key supervisors; matrix model; UCLA integrated substance abuse programs; and summit centers - residential treatment programs. This web site provides presentations and education and training materials.

Methamphetamine Web Link Resources

National Congress of American Indians

http://www.ncai.org/Methamphetamine_Resources.195.0.html

Currently serving as the major national tribal government organization, National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) is positioned to monitor federal policy and coordinated efforts to inform federal decisions that affect tribal government interests. NCAI serves to secure the rights and benefits to which this population is entitled; to enlighten the public toward the better understanding of the Indian people; to preserve rights under Indian treaties or agreements with the United States; and to promote the common welfare of the American Indians and Alaska Natives. This web site link includes tribal methamphetamine toolkit, conferences and meetings regarding methamphetamine, FAQs, resources and public policy information.

National Institute on Drug Abuse

http://www.drugabuse.gov/DrugPages/methamphetamine_all.html

The National Institute on Drug Abuse's (NIDA) mission is to lead the Nation in bringing the power of science to bear on drug abuse and addiction. This charge has two critical components. The first is the strategic support and conduct of research across a broad range of disciplines. The second is ensuring the rapid and effective dissemination and use of the results of that research to significantly improve prevention, treatment and policy as it relates to drug abuse and addiction. The NIDA web site provides research reports, information and publication materials.

PBS Frontline Program-The Methamphetamine Epidemic

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/pages/frontline/meth/>

Link includes the video of the PBS special on how methamphetamine became the fastest growing drug abuse problem in America. Includes resources and interviews.

Office of National Drug Control Policy (Methamphetamine Fact Sheet)

<http://www.whitehousedrugpolicy.gov/drugfact/methamphetamine/index.html>

The White House Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP), a component of the Executive Office of the President, was established by the Anti-Drug Abuse Act

Optimizing Performance By Dynamic Connections

• Tel: (602) 996-8800 • Fax: (602) 996-2200 • www.piurek.com • info@piurek.com

